OUR MISSION

At Brilliant Earth, our mission is to cultivate a more transparent, sustainable, compassionate, & inclusive jewelry industry. We believe in creating jewelry you can feel good about wearing, without ever compromising between quality and conscience.

OUR MISSION

When you've found the ultimate in true love, all is that's left is finding an iconic ring. Whether you're dreaming of the perfect Tiffany design or are planning to pop the question, here's our definitive guide to choosing the all important engagement ring.

RESPONSIBLE SOURCING

SOCIAL IMPACT

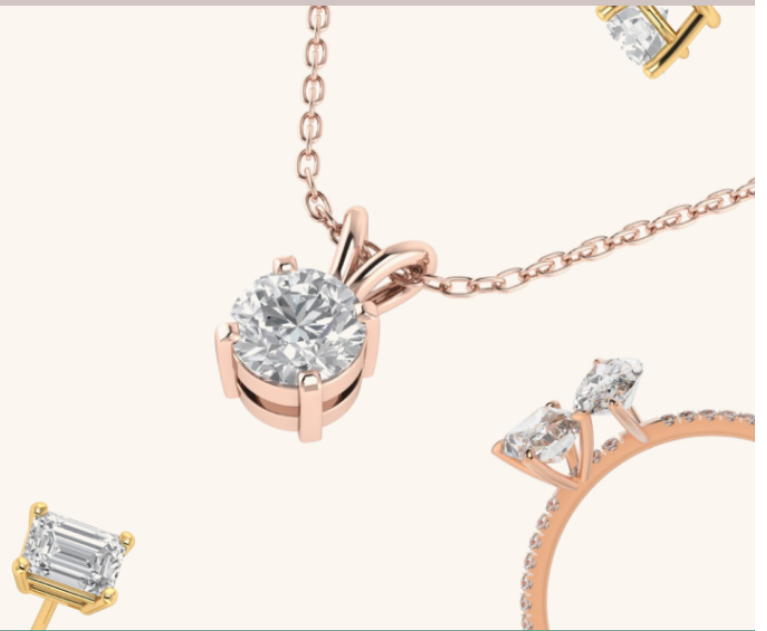

CLIMATE ACTION

"We started Brilliant Earth in 2005 to raise the ethical standards of the diamond industry and create a new way to buy beautiful fine jewelry."

DESIGN SETS US APART

Our number one goal is to make incomparably beautiful jewelry, just for you. At our San Francisco design studio, our team designs every piece to delight you, from the first time you see it and every day after. We carefully consider the entire piece—the artfully tapered prongs; the hidden accents under the center gem; the precisely curved interior of each band. We obsess over comfort, quality, and durability to ensure that this is jewelry you will cherish for a lifetime.

SUSTAINABLE PACKAGING

RAINFOREST CONSERVATION

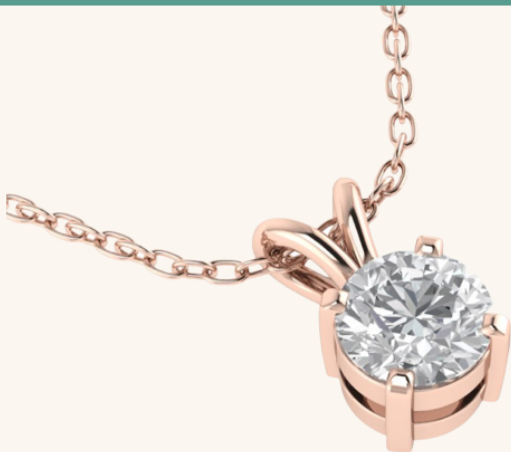

CARBON NEUTRAL

Our iconic ring boxes are crafted with wood sourced from Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) certified forests and we use post-consumer recycled content for all our shipping packaging.

Brilliant Earth is a certified Carbonfree® company, partnering with Carbonfund.org to offset our carbon emissions by contributing to tropical rainforest conservation in Brazil.

OUR MISSION

When you've found the ultimate in true love, all is that's left is finding an iconic ring. Whether you're dreaming of the perfect Tiffany design or are planning to pop the question, here's our definitive guide to choosing the all important engagement ring.
